QUESTIONS 31 – 35

Read the passage and answer the questions.

Baca karangan di bawah dan jawab soalan-soalan berikut.

The people of Kelantan are very hardworking. Many of them are farmers. June is a happy month for them because the harvesting season is over. It is time to celebrate. The Kelantanese have many activities for their celebrations. Among these are wayang kulit show, dikir barat, top-spinning contest and kite-flying competition.

The most exciting event is the kite-flying competition. It is usually held on the beach or in a big field. People come from many villages to watch the event.

Some of the kites are more than three metres across. When the wind is very strong, it takes more than one man to control a kite. The kites look beautiful and colourful against the clear blue sky. Most have the shape of a bird or a half-moon. Some of the kites are fitted with small whistles which make different sounds.

'Kite-fighting' is also an important part of the sport. The kite-fliers turn their kites here and there. They try to cut the strings of each other's kites. There is also a lot of cheering and shouting among the spectators.
